Congratulations!

Asclepius

REF: IPHMNC15102

Asclepius therapy, 33a Walter road, Uplands, Swansea, SA1 5NW, United Kingdom

We are excited to let you know that your application has been accepted and you are now an IPHM accredited recognised training provider.

You have achieved a widely recognised and respected globally certificate. This tells new students and clients that you now provide a high-quality service.

We see what you're doing, and can we just say, we think it is brilliant. Your courses and training are so unique, and the results are exactly what we are looking for.

Thanks to our reputation we are a gateway for great training providers. If people see we trust you, they trust you too, therefore we are happy to present you with our globally recognised Trustmark and our international seal of approval.

The certification lets our industry know that you are exceptional and completely trusted by us. We don't hand out our sought-after trustmark to anyone though. Only the best get it.

Congratulations on becoming an official globally certified IPHM training provider!

Kind Regards
